OMNI[®] Promotes Robert McLean

Iselin, NJ, June 27, 2014 – U.S. Retirement Partners (USRP) announced today that its member firm, The OMNI Group, has promoted Robert McLean to Vice President, General Counsel & Chief Compliance Officer. The OMNI Group is an independent full-service Third Party Administrator that offers services for all aspects of retirement plan administration.

Mr. McLean will continue his role as General Counsel, while also overseeing all areas of compliance as Chief Compliance Officer. As Vice President, he will play a more integral role in providing strategic input to corporate leadership on the future direction of OMNI. He will provide consultation to management on strategic ways to improve systems and continue to build OMNI's position as a world class leader in the 403(b)/457(b) market.

“Robert’s well-deserved promotion gives us the ability to utilize his extensive knowledge of the 403(b) industry in a more strategic way. He will play a key role in the future growth of our company,” says Nina Rovinski, OMNI’s President and CEO.

Mark Skinner, President and CEO of USRP said, “Rob is considered one of the top industry experts in the field and OMNI is, we believe, the only specialist TPA firm in the 403(b) market that makes the services of an attorney like Rob available to our clients, to provide insight and perspective.”
