BENCOR, Inc. Adds Retirement Resource Center to Website

A Free Educational Service for Employers and their Employees

Iselin, NJ, October 1, 2012 – U.S. Employee Benefits Service Group (USEBSG) is pleased to announce that Partner Firm BENCOR, Inc. has added the Retirement Resource Center (RRC) microsite to their public website. The RRC is a key component of our new Financial Literacy Program and features easy-to-use product-neutral information to help employers and their employees learn more about Retirement Planning, Social Security, Insurance and Protection, Personal Finances, and College Savings.

Now, anyone viewing BENCOR’s website (www.bencorplans.com) can easily access this educational material, which includes articles, video presentations, and calculators. BENCOR can also offer the link to this valuable resource to their Employer clients as a free service should they wish to add the Retirement Resource Center to their own websites.

BENCOR has always felt that education is a key element to successful retirement planning for both our employer and employee clients," stated Hugh Bishop, President of BENCOR, Inc. He then added, "The Financial Literacy Program, including the Retirement Resource Center, is comprised of relevant, user-friendly information and tools that will certainly be an asset to our clients."

"We take financial literacy for our clients very seriously. Being the leader in our marketplace is a responsibility that we have embraced and are committed to living up to in every sense," said Mark M. Skinner, President and CEO of U.S. Retirement Partners.
