

Dave Cervino

Managing Director

U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group

Dave Cervino, Director of Operations for SF&C Insurance Associates, Union Lifestyle Benefits (ULB), and Select Benefits Communications Group (SBCG), is responsible for leading the combined organizations by overseeing the management of all aspects of operations, including new case development, enrollment, customer service, account administration, and finance. Mr. Cervino also serves as a Managing Director of parent company, U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group.

Dave has over 30 years' experience in the Insurance and Financial Services industry. He has served in various leadership roles with reputable national and local insurance companies, as well as brokerage and consulting firms.

The depth of experience Dave has in implementing and facilitating employee benefit plan enrollments for employer groups (ranging from 100 to 10,000 employees) and his expertise in the field of voluntary benefits enables him to successfully manage the implementation of employer group plans and offer the most advanced technological communications and enrollment platforms.