

David Maddox

Director

U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group

---

David Maddox joined BenefitVision in 2015 as the Vice President of Sales for the southeastern US. He also serves as a Sales Director for parent company, U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group.

David brings 25 years of experience in the voluntary benefit business, having initiated agreements with national companies and maintaining excellent relationships with those accounts for decades. With a background in traditional enrollment approaches, David recognized the uniqueness and creativity of BenefitVision's tele-enrollment and WebACES methodology.

David earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from William Jewell College in Kansas City, Missouri. He went on to obtain a master's of theology from New Orleans Seminary, serving as a youth minister for ten years with Young Life.

Dave's office is in Dothan, AL, where he resides with his wife and family.