

Janet Williamson

Managing Director, Finance & HR

U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group

Ms. Williamson began her career in the public accounting arena in 1986 specializing in income tax preparation and retirement plan consulting and planning. She completed her education at Troy State University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting and a Master of Science in Management with an Accounting and Human Resources emphasis.

She joined TSA Consulting Group, Inc., in 2003 as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), and between 2006-2016, she dually served as CFO and Chief Operations Officer. As the company's growth continued, Ms. Williamson's focus narrowed to Finance and Human Resources, and she continues oversight of these critical areas today as Managing Director, Finance & HR. Additionally, Ms. Williamson served as an adjunct faculty member of Troy State University teaching Accounting Principles.
