

Nikki Bohn

Sales Director

Nikki Bohn joined U.S. Employee Benefits Service Group (USEBSG) as a Sales Director in January 2022. Her responsibilities include identifying target markets, new client acquisition, and extending market penetration. She has served K-12 educators with consultative services in retirement, financial planning, and tax-sheltered annuities.

Nikki has a host of financial product knowledge that enabled her to successfully develop long lasting and meaningful relationships with her clients. She has experience managing complex budgets and annual inventories while maintaining a reputation of keeping a project on-time and following through with the desired expectations. In addition, she is involved in multiple community school associations. Her seasoned leadership expertise builds positive work ethic and promotes organizational effectiveness and efficiency. Her outstanding record in operations and management has led to multiple factory incentive programs achieved.

Nikki currently holds a license in Life & Fixed Annuities and Accident & Health. She was born and raised in Pittsburgh, PA and is a graduate of Penn State University. She enjoys spending time with her husband and two children.