

Patrick Hale, JD, MBA

Managing Partner

U.S. Employee Benefit Services Group

Patrick Hale joined The Retirement Plan Company (TRPC) in 2001, managing client services. He was promoted to President and Chief Executive Officer of TRPC in October 2017. Patrick is also a Managing Partner at parent company, U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group.

With over 20 years' experience within the retirement plan industry, prior to joining TRPC, Patrick held leadership positions with several third party administration and investment advisory firms. Patrick is licensed to practice law within the state of Arkansas and attained the designation of Qualified Plan Administrator (QPA) from the American Society of Pension Professionals and Actuaries (ASPPA).

Patrick received his Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from Ouachita Baptist University and earned a Master of Business Administration and Juris Doctor from the University of Arkansas.